Why sponsor the NPRA Finals?

The Northwest Professional Rodeo Association (NPRA) would be honored to have your company as a sponsor of the 2016 NPRA Finals being held September 23 & 24, 2016 in the Cowboy Capitol of Oregon, Prineville.

We believe our rodeo athletes deserve to have a Finals that would be reflective of the hard work and dedication it takes to be a champion. The NPRA is the largest regional rodeo association in the United States, yet we face the same financial challenges that all non-profit organizations face in today's economy.

The NPRA is proud of the opportunity it provides for rodeo athletes to compete at the professional level while remaining close to home, families, & weekday jobs. It promotes a wholesome family atmosphere and continuously works to improve contestant & livestock conditions. For instance, we have a NPRA Cowboy Crisis Fund to aid our cowboys and cowgirls and their families when unforeseen disaster strikes, whether it be medical, natural disaster, or other circumstances. We also offer annual scholarships to deserving young men and women, as well as offer special membership rates to Northwest high school rodeo athletes.

The NPRA is dedicated to preserving the western heritage that is an integral part of rodeo. The spirit of the west is alive and flourishing at NPRA rodeos. We invite you to attend the Finals, the finale of the KSJJ Rodeo Road Tour. Bring the whole family and enjoy the fun and excitement of The Great American Sport of Rodeo - NPRA style!
